Honesty, lifestyle, and integrity are scrutinized closely in considering applications for employment positions with the Vancouver Police Department. Information supplied in this document will be considered in the context of the competition for employment for the position applied for and will be held in confidence under those circumstances.

British Columbia municipal police agencies are authorized under s. 26(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to collect personal information because the information relates directly to and is necessary for the activity of determining suitability for security clearance in the policing environment. If you have any questions or concerns about the collection of your personal information, please contact the Vancouver Police Department Recruiting Section Assistant at recruiting@vpd.ca.

The information you provide during the selection process is collected by the Vancouver Police Department for the purpose of an employment application. However, if an applicant admits to having committed a serious and undetected criminal offence, or is deemed to pose a serious risk to the safety of others, the Vancouver Police Department may use or disclose specific information for a law enforcement or public safety purpose. While cases of such use and disclosure outside of the Recruiting Process are rare and exceptional, the Vancouver Police Department strongly discourages an applicant from completing this form if you believe this notice applies to you.

EXAMPLES OF SERIOUS CRIMINAL OFFENCES INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- murder
- impaired driving
- sexual assault
- crimes relating to domestic violence
- child pornography (includes accessing, possession, distribution, or production)
- offences contrary to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act
- robbery

- any crime involving children (includes physical or sexual abuse)

ACCESS, RETENTION, AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

Your information will be stored securely within the Vancouver Police Department Recruiting Section, and access to records entered onto recruiting databases will be restricted to those involved in the recruiting process.
